1. Rental time. You keep the dress for 3 days. Pickup day is day 1. Bring it back on the return date above. Need it longer? Text us before your return date. If no one else has booked the dress, each extra day is $5.

2. Paying. To hold your dress, pay a $10 booking fee (it counts toward the rental price). 6% Kentucky sales tax is added. At pickup, pay the rest plus the security deposit.

3. Your security deposit. We send it back within 3 days after you return the dress.

- On time, with normal wear: you get all of it back.
- Damaged, but it can be fixed: we keep up to half, based on the repair.
- Ruined, or not returned: we keep all of it.

Normal wear means a little dust or a small spot that cleans out. Damage means tears, a broken zipper, missing beads, burns or stains that won't come out.

4. Late returns. If you return the dress late without our okay, it's $10 for each day late, taken from your security deposit. After 7 days late, the dress counts as not returned, and we keep the whole security deposit.

8. Fit, flaws and changes. We check the dress together before you sign. When you sign, you agree the dress fits and the flaws line below shows every flaw already there. Only we can change (alter) a dress. Changes are included in your price and are temporary. Some dresses can't be changed.

Flaws (what and where): _____ ☐ None · ☐ Photos taken together

9. Safety. Be careful in a long dress, in heels and on stairs. Tell us if you are allergic to any fabric or soap. If something goes wrong, the most we owe you is what you paid for this rental.

10. Age and the legal part. "We" means IKM Dress Studio LLC. The dress always belongs to us; keeping your deposit doesn't mean you bought it. You must be 18 or older to sign; if the wearer is under 18, a parent or guardian is the client and signs. Kentucky law applies, and disputes go to court in Jefferson County, KY. Changes must be in writing (a text is fine). If a court says one part doesn't count, the rest still does.
